-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. Claim 82 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 82 is vague and indefinite because it is not clear as to what constitutes a "few millimeters thick". The metes and bounds of the claim cannot be determined.

In response to this rejection Applicants argue that when the claim recitation of "a few millimeters thick" is accorded its ordinary and accustomed meaning, claim 82 cannot reasonably be considered indefinite. Applicants also note that the word "few" appears in the claims of over 4,000 patents.

Applicant's arguments have been considered but are not convincing. The term "few" is defined as "1: a small number of units or individuals; 2: at least some but indeterminately small in number" (Webster's Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary, 1990). The term "few" is indefinite as shown by the dictionary. The metes and bounds of claim 82 cannot be determined as it is not clear as to how many millimeters in thickness are being claimed. It is incumbent upon the claims to clearly define the claimed invention. The recitation of "few" does not clearly define the thickness of the first substrate.

Each application/patent stands on its own. Whether or not the term "few" appears in over 4,000 patents is immaterial.

Double Patenting

2. Claims 43-94 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of double patenting over claims 1-2 of U. S. Patent No. 5,427,946 since the claims, if allowed, would improperly extend the "right to exclude" already granted in the patent.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the patent and is covered by the patent since the patent and the application are claiming common subject matter, as follows: (see the previous office action).

Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why applicant was prevented from presenting claims corresponding to those of the instant application during prosecution of the application which matured into a patent. See In re Schneller, 397 F.2d 350, 158 USPQ 210 (CCPA 1968). See also MPEP § 804.

Applicant's terminal disclaimer failed to address this ground of rejection and thus is being maintained.

Conclusion

3. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
